PETITIONER'S RESPONSE TO BOARD'S ORDER OF JANUARY 21, 2004

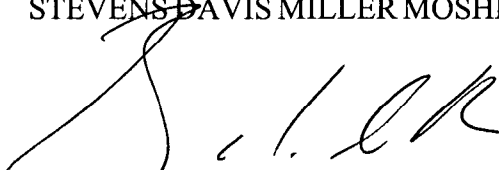

In response to the Board's Order of January 21, 2004, the Board is advised as follows:

- (1) Based upon the attached letter dated November 19, 2003 from Patricia A. Celano handling the Chapter 11 liquidation, the bankruptcy attorneys requested that the court enter a final report closing the bankruptcy. Based upon information and belief, to date, the court has not yet issued the requested order.
- (2) The Board is informed that the Petitioner, GC/Waldom Electronics, Inc. was sold and all of the trademarks have been transferred to a new entity entitled Waldom Electronics Corporation an Illinois corporation. Petitioner's counsel is in the process to make sure that the assignment transferring the right to the application and the petitioner's mark namely "GC ELECRONICS" has been properly recorded with the United States Patent and Trademark Office. Once recordation is confirmed, the Petitioner will be making a motion to add Waldom Electronics Corporation, an Illinois corporation, as a party of record.
- (3) In view of the bankruptcy by General Ceramics, Inc., the Board is informed that the Petitioner will be making a motion to re-open the discovery period to ascertain the nature of the transfer, if any, of Respondent's registration for the "GC" mark to the purchaser, which, on information and belief, is Advanced Industries International, Inc.

In view thereof, further action is respectfully solicited.

Respectfully submitted,

In re: General Ceramics, Inc.
Case No. 99-33403 (RG)

Honorable Rosemary Gambardella, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey
M.L. King Jr. Federal Building & Courthouse
50 Walnut Street
Newark, New Jersey 07102
Attn: Ms. Sharon Moore

Dear Judge Gambardella:

This firm represents Hobart Truesdell, the Disbursing Agent (the "Disbursing Agent") of Chapter 11 Debtor General Ceramics, Inc. On July 5, 2001, General Ceramics, Inc. confirmed a liquidating Chapter 11 Plan which became effective on September 4, 2001. Local Bankruptcy Rule 3022-1(a) provides that the clerk shall close a Chapter 11 Case 180 days after entry of a final order confirming a plan. Notwithstanding LBR 3022-1(a), due to certain unresolved issues pending at the time, we requested that the clerk keep the case open until further notice.

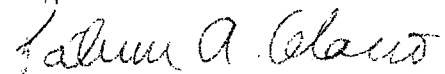

The outstanding issues have since concluded. In fact, as Your Honor is aware, the Court entered our Order on September 4, 2003 Authorizing the Disbursing Agent to destroy certain records. Accordingly, we respectfully request that the clerk enter a final report closing this case after all parties on the attached Service List are afforded five (5) days from the date of this letter to object.
